I don't spend a lot of time
Looking for the light
It doesn't matter if it's high noon
Or the middle of the night
All I have do
Is take one look at you
And I know, we're gonna be alright

The world's gone crazy
Yes it's true
All except me and maybe you
You've got to admit
You've got your quirks
Like I always say
Whatever works

Whatever works, whatever works
Like I always say
Whatever works

You know how to call the shots
You do it every day
Keeping us together
Even when there's hell to pay
All I got to do
Is take one look at you
And I know, we're gonna be okay
